HEALTHCARE CALIFORNIA SALUTES CALIFORNIA NURSES

HealthCare California joins in saluting California nurses during National Nurses Week which is being commemorated from May 6 to 12, 2010. These seasoned professionals are entrusted daily with providing medical care for hundreds of thousands of Californians each year.

In celebration of National Nurses Week, Harry G. Harris, Ph.D., President of HealthCare California issued the following statement:

HealthCare California recognizes the vital contributions of our talented clinical nursing staff in providing the finest home health care for patients residing in central California. Each day, nurses touch our lives with their caring hearts and healing hands. They remain tireless in providing swift care with professionalism and compassion.

Our company remains committed to providing a positive working environment for the clinical staff so they may excel in providing outstanding home health care for our patients. Nurses are an indispensable part of HealthCare California. We thank them for their continued dedication to serve faithfully and enhance medical excellence which improves the lives of many Californians.
