HEALTHCARE CALIFORNIA RECEIVES NATIONAL RECOGNITION

HealthCare California has been designated a 2009 HomeCare Elite home health agency by Outcome Concept Systems (OCS), a national evaluation agency assessing performance of Medicare facilities.

The listing produced by OCS is specific to Medicare-certified home health agencies. Performance measurements of agencies included quality outcomes, quality improvement and financial performance. The HomeCare Elite designations are awarded to the top 25% home health providers nationwide.

In commenting on the HomeCare Elite notification, Devin S. Nugent, HealthCare California's Chief Operating Officer, stated:

“We are proud to once again be recognized nationwide for our excellent clinical outcomes and improvement. The commitment to quality home health care has been the cornerstone of HealthCare California since our inception in 2004.

At HealthCare California, we deliver on our promise of top patient care and customer service. Being awarded the 2009 HomeCare Elite designation is a testament to our continuing efforts in meeting these twin objectives. This national recognition comes through the dedicated efforts of our exceptional clinical and administrative team members who tirelessly pursue excellence.”
