HEALTHCARE CALIFORNIA SCORES HIGH RATING IN PATIENT CARE

HealthCare California was rated above the California state average in eight key home health outcome measurements in a recent market data analysis. The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) announced the findings during its last reporting period.

Some of the key home health care categories for patients included:

- Better walking/moving
- Better to/from bed
- Short of breath less often
- Discharged to home more often
- Admitted to the hospital less often

Devin S. Nugent, Chief Operating Officer of HealthCare California, commented on this achievement:

HealthCare California is proud to receive this national recognition from a major national rating agency. Our company remains dedicated to providing the finest home health care by an exceptional and highly qualified staff of clinicians. Our continued successes come from our team of professionals which is dedicated to meeting the varied home health needs of patients residing throughout central California.
